

Golden Leaf Tobacco Co. is a tobacco company engaged in the manufacturing, marketing and distribution of tobacco leaf, cut tobacco and cigarettes. The company primarily operates in the Middle East, East Europe and Africa. It is headquartered in Amman, Jordan. The company has a significant international presence coupled with strong market shares across a number of markets.

From its inception in 1998, GLT has grown from being a predominantly local company to become one of the major suppliers of tobacco in the region. The company enjoys a strong presence in the Middle Eastern market, with tobacco manufacturing and wholesale operations across the Arab world. Its cigarette private label brands are available in about six countries throughout the Middle East and Africa. GLT is privately owned, and represents itself. The company enjoys leadership positions in the cut rag tobacco trade across most of its markets. For instance, GLT is the leading provider of cut tobacco to the Jordanian and Iraqi markets.
